JAN 31 1947

MEMORANDUM TO: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Progress Report; January 1947

1. This Office delivered its first full-scale oral presentation before the National War College on 23 January 1947, covering the subject of Soviet World-Wide Objectives. The presentation by the Regional Branches of ORE was concise, effectively delivered and well received by the audience. Further details of briefings conducted by ORE and presentations it has arranged for are included under Tab "B".

2. Twenty-six Daily Summaries, five Weekly Summaries, two Special Evaluations and two ORE Estimates have been completed during this period; ORE 5/1, The Situation in Korea, and ORE 6/1, The Situation in Greece and Soviet Intentions in Relation Thereto. A detailed statement of the status of ORE Summaries, Special Evaluations, and Estimates completed and in process is included under Tab "A".

3. Four new projects involving organizational, inter-agency and CIG planning and programming were initiated during this period. These are discussed in detail together with those previously reported upon under Tab "C".

4. The Branches, in addition to preparing statements of requirements for intelligence information and the production of reports and estimates, have been engaged in interviewing personnel for recruitment, preparation of Civil Service job descriptions, indoctrinating and training of personnel reporting to duty, and effecting internal organizational changes brought about by such increases. Uniform methods of filing intelligence information have been put into effect within the branches and substantial progress has been made in reducing the backlog of unfiled material developed during acute shortages of clerical personnel. Tab "D" contains a Table indicating the volume of material processed by each of the Regional Branches in order to produce finished reports and estimates.
